INSTRUCTIONS

1. IMMEDIATELY AFTER THE COMMENCEMENT OF THE EXAMINATION, YOU SHOULD CHECK THAT THIS TEST BOOKLET DOES NOT HAVE ANY UNPRINTED OR TORN OR MISSING PAGES OR ITEMS, ETC. IF SO, GET IT REPLACED BY A COMPLETE TEST BOOKLET.

2. Please note that it is the candidate’s responsibility to encode and fill in the Roll Number and Test Booklet Series Code A, B, C or D carefully and without any omission or discrepancy at the appropriate places in the OMR Answer Sheet. Any omission/discrepancy will render the Answer Sheet liable for rejection.

3. You have to enter your Roll Number on the Test Booklet in the Box provided alongside. DO NOT write anything else on the Test Booklet.

4. This Test Booklet contains 120 items (questions). Each item comprises four responses (answers). You will select the response which you want to mark on the Answer Sheet. In case, you feel that there is more than one correct response, mark the response which you consider the best. In any case, choose ONLY ONE response for each item.

5. You have to mark all your responses ONLY on the separate Answer Sheet provided. See directions in the Answer Sheet.

6. All items carry equal marks.

7. Before you proceed to mark in the Answer Sheet the response to various items in the Test Booklet, you have to fill in some particulars in the Answer Sheet as per instructions sent to you with your Admission Certificate.

8. After you have completed filling in all your responses on the Answer Sheet and the examination has concluded, you should hand over to the Invigilator only the Answer Sheet. You are permitted to take away with you the Test Booklet.

9. Sheets for rough work are appended in the Test Booklet at the end.

10. Penalty for wrong Answers:
THERE WILL BE PENALTY FOR WRONG ANSWERS MARKED BY A CANDIDATE IN THE OBJECTIVE TYPE QUESTION PAPERS.

   (i) There are four alternatives for the answer to every question. For each question for which a wrong answer has been given by the candidate, one-third of the marks assigned to that question will be deducted as penalty.

   (ii) If a candidate gives more than one answer, it will be treated as a wrong answer even if one of the given answers happens to be correct and there will be same penalty as above to that question.

   (iii) If a question is left blank i.e., no answer is given by the candidate, there will be no penalty for that question.

Passages

Directions:

In this section you have few short passages. After each passage, you will find some items based on the passage. First, read a passage and answer the items based on it. You are required to select your answer based on the contents of the passage and opinion of the author only.

Passage 1

Daily consumption of a certain form of curcumin improved memory and mood in people with mild, age-related memory loss. The research examined the effects of an easily absorbed curcumin supplement on memory performance in people without dementia, as well as curcumin’s potential impact on the microscopic plaques and tangled in the brains of people with Alzheimer’s disease. Found in turmeric, curcumin has previously been shown to have anti-inflammatory and antioxidant properties in laboratory studies. It has also been suggested as a possible reason that senior citizens in India, where curcumin is a dietary staple, have a lower prevalence of Alzheimer’s disease and better cognitive performance.

21. Which of the following statements are true?

1. Senior citizens in India have high level of Alzheimer’s disease because of consumption of turmeric.
2. Senior citizens in India do not have high prevalence of Alzheimer’s because of consumption of turmeric.
4. Curcumin is an antioxidant.

Select the correct answer using the code given below:

(a) 2, 3 and 4
(b) 1, 3 and 4
(c) 1 and 4 only
(d) 1 and 3 only

22. Curcumin has positive effect on people

(a) without dementia
(b) with Alzheimer’s disease
(c) without dementia and with Alzheimer’s disease
(d) with dementia and with Alzheimer’s disease

23. Which word in the passage means ‘earlier’?

(a) Performance
(b) Absorbed
(c) Properties
(d) Previously

24. Eating turmeric

(a) will reduce the chance of getting Alzheimer’s disease
(b) will increase curcumin
(c) will enhance dementia
(d) will reduce chance of getting cancer

25. ___________ of a disease in a region depends on the food habits too.

(a) Dominance
(b) Prevalence
(c) Affection
(d) Death
Passage 2

Mr. Rowland Hill, when a young man, was walking through the Lake district, when he one day saw the postman deliver a letter to a woman at a cottage door. The woman turned it over and examined it, and then returned it, saying she could not pay the postage, which was a shilling. Hearing that the letter was from her brother, Mr. Hill paid the postage, in spite of the manifest unwillingness of the woman. As soon as the postman was out of sight, she showed Mr. Hill how his money had been wasted, as far as she was concerned. The sheet was blank. There was an agreement between her brother and herself that as long as all went well with him, he should send a blank sheet in this way once a quarter, and she thus had tidings of him without expense of postage.

26. The story uses irony as a technique because

(a) the woman returned her own brother's letter without opening it

(b) the woman broke the agreement of receiving blank letters to convey well being of her brother

(c) Mr. Hill accepted the letter addressed to the woman

(d) in the modern times a brother has no time to write a letter to his own sister

28. Mr. Hill paid the postage because

(a) the letter was from her brother

(b) the woman was his relative

(c) the letter was addressed to him

(d) he wanted to be kind to her

29. The envelope contained

(a) a currency note

(b) two written sheets

(c) no sheet at all

(d) a blank sheet

30. The woman and her brother had agreed that

(a) the letter with no postage meant good news

(b) the blank sheet meant being well

(c) the blank sheet meant bad news

(d) the letter with no postage meant unimportant news
Passage 3

In good many cases unnecessary timidity makes the trouble worse than it needs to be. Public opinion is always more tyrannical towards those who obviously fear it than towards those who feel indifferent to it. A dog will bark more loudly and bite more easily when people are afraid of it than when they treat him with contempt, and the human herd has something of this same characteristic. If you show that you are afraid of them, you give promise of good hunting, whereas if you show indifference, they begin to doubt their own power and, therefore, tend to let you alone.

31. If we are afraid of public opinion, the attitude of the people towards us is
   (a) sympathetic
   (b) indifferent
   (c) admiration
   (d) ruthless

32. The statement, 'A dog will bark more loudly and bite more easily when people are afraid of him, than when they treat him with contempt...' implies that
   (a) barking dogs seldom bite
   (b) we should not be afraid of dogs
   (c) if we are afraid of others, they will leave us alone
   (d) if we are afraid of people, they will try to scare us more

33. The author compares men with dogs in respect of
   (a) attacking others without any reason
   (b) attacking others when they are weak
   (c) barking and biting
   (d) faithfulness to the master

34. '...you give promise of good hunting' means
   (a) you are vulnerable
   (b) you are challenging
   (c) you are indomitable
   (d) you are confused

Passage 4

We live in a curious age. We are offered glimpses of a world civilization slowly emerging, for example, the U.N. special agencies dedicated to health and education. But along with these are sights and sounds that suggest that the whole civilization is rapidly being destroyed. Two official policies clash, and instantly embassies are attacked by howling mobs of students, at once defying law, custom and usage. And that this may not be merely so many hot-headed lads escaping all control, and may itself be part of the policy of the political parties, that is, mob antics as additional propaganda to deceive world opinion, makes the situation even worse. Parties have always been dishonest, but now it seems as if power-mania is ready to destroy those civilities that make international relations possible. There is something even worse. What inspires these students to burn cars and books is not their political enthusiasm but a frenzied delight in destruction, an urge towards violent demolition.
35. The author calls our age curious because (a) it is an age of science and scientists are curious by nature (b) it is witnessing the emergence of a world civilization (c) it is witnessing incidents that threaten to shake the very foundations of civilization (d) it is an age of contradictions consisting of constructive and destructive activities

36. It is deplorable to witness mob attacks on embassies following a clash of policies of two official policy makers because (a) students should not take part in politics, but should concentrate on their studies (b) they may result in the loss of lives of young and promising students

37. One aspect of the mob indulging in violence and arson is that they (a) destroy very costly things like vehicles (b) destroy very valuable artifacts and books (c) get a mad delight in destruction for the sake of destruction only (d) are motivated by certain political ideology to resort to destruction

38. In the passage the word ‘demolition’ has the meaning as the word (a) defying (b) antics (c) destruction (d) urge

CLOZE COMPREHENSION 2

So the difficulty is that in the present social structure, discipline has become an important factor because we want large numbers of children to be educated together and as quickly as possible. Educated to be what? To be bank clerks or super salesmen, capitalists or commissars. When you are a superman of some kind, as/or a super governor or a subtle parliamentary debater, what have you done? You are probably very clever, full of facts. Anybody can pick up facts; but we are human beings, not factual machines, not routine automatons. But again, sirs, you are not interested. You are listening to me and for each other, you are not going to do a thing about radically changing the education system; so it will drag on substitution — there will be much more control because the totalitarian government knows how to shape the minds and hearts of the people, they had learnt the trick.

ORDERING SENTENCES

Directions:

In this section each item consists of six sentences of a passage. The first and the sixth sentences are given as S1 and S6. The middle four sentences in each have been jumbled up and labelled P, Q, R and S. You are required to find the proper sequences of the four sentences and mark your response accordingly on the Answer Sheet.

89. S1: The giant wall of the Dhauladhar range in Himachal Pradesh is one of the most stunning sights in the Himalayas.

P: As the life line of the region it acts as a watershed ridge between Chamba’s Ravi river system and Kangra’s Beas river system.

Q: Although of modest altitude compared to other Himalayan ranges—the highest Dhauladhar peak is less than 5,000 m.

R: Thus, the Dhauladhar could be stated as the life line of the region.

S: Despite of that, the range sweeps up an astounding 12,000 ft. from the valley floor, creating a barrier wall in that is striking to look at.

S6: Looming over the hill stations of Dharamsala and McLeodganj, the Dhauladhar is a popular trekking destination.

(a) Q R P S
(b) S P Q R
(c) Q S R P
(d) R Q S P

90. S1: Truth is far more important than the teacher.

P: Without self-knowledge, the airplane becomes the most destructive instrument in life; but with self-knowledge, it is a means of human help.

Q: Wisdom begins with self-knowledge; and without self-knowledge, mere information leads to destruction.

R: In other words, you have to be the perfect teacher to create a new society; and to bring the perfect teacher into being, you have to understand yourself.

S: Therefore you, who are the seeker of truth, have to be both the pupil and the teacher.

S6: So a teacher must obviously be one who is not within the clutches of society, who does not play power politics or seeks position or authority.

(a) Q R S P
(b) S R Q P
(c) Q S R P
(d) R Q S P
91. S1: Though most of us talk of discipline, what do we mean by that word?

P: The teacher would understand each child and help him in the way required.

Q: But if you have five or six in a class, and an intelligent understanding teacher with a warm heart, I am sure there would be no need for discipline.

R: When you have a hundred boys in a class, you will have to have discipline; otherwise there will be complete chaos.

S: Discipline in schools becomes necessary when there is one teacher to a hundred boys and girls.

S6: And most of us are interested in mass movements, large schools with a great many boys and girls; we are not interested in creative intelligence, therefore we put up huge schools with enormous attendances.

(a) Q R S P
(b) S Q P R
(c) S Q R P

92. S1: Tolstoy Farm was founded in 1910 by which time Gandhi had already conceptualized ideas that he would develop in India.

P: He was rich and used his money to buy the land and help set up the farm.

Q: A Jewish architect, Kallenbach was by his side through this period.

R: Tolstoy Farm became the subject of research for different kinds of cooperative communities across the world.

S: He first put in the social, moral, religious components of his doctrine.

S6: Both he and Gandhi often referred to the time that they spent in Tolstoy Farm as among the happiest in their lives.

93. S1: Decentralized planning is a process of planning that begins from the grassroots level taking into confidence all the beneficiaries.

P: Under decentralized planning, the operation is from bottom to top.

Q: It can be said that it is more connected with the capitalistic economies.

R: It empowers the individuals and small groups to carry out their plans for their achievement of a common goal.

S: The decentralized planning is implemented through market mechanism.

S6: But it cannot be described as undemocratic for most national states adopt such a planning now.

(c) S Q R P
(d) S R P Q
94. S1: It is doubtful if mankind, throughout his long history, has ever lived at all ‘sustainably’.

P: But in general mankind has regarded the environment as an endless ‘resource’ to be exploited and plundered.

Q: May be a few isolated tribal groups found the necessary balance with nature lived without the desire for endless ‘more’.

R: Now we have reached a point where we are on the verge of destroying ourselves and most of the life on earth.

S: This process has accelerated greatly since the industrial revolution.

S6: The concept of ‘sustainable’ is so far from reality that it is almost laughable.

96. S1: Equity theory is concerned with the perception people have about how they are being treated compared with others.

P: To be dealt with equitably is to be treated fairly in comparison with another group of people or a relevant other person.

Q: Equity involves feelings and perceptions and is always a comparative process.

R: Equity theory states, in effect, that people will be better motivated if they are treated equitably and demotivated if they are treated inequitably.

S: It is not synonymous with equality, which means treating everyone the same, since this would be inequitable if they deserve to be treated differently.

97. S1: We cannot understand the power of rumours and prophecies in history by checking whether they are factually correct or not.

P: The rumours in 1857 began to make sense when seen in the context of the policies the British pursued from the late 1820s.

Q: Rumours circulate only when they resonate with the deeper fears and suspicions of people.

R: Under the leadership of Governor General Lord William Bentinck, the British adopted policies aimed at "reforming" Indian society by introducing Western education, Western ideas and Western Institutions.

S: We need to see what they reflect about the minds of people who believed them – their fears and apprehensions, their faiths and convictions.

S6: With the cooperation of sections of Indian society they set up English-medium schools, colleges and universities which taught Western sciences and liberal arts.

98. S1: The Constitution of India thus emerged through a process of intense debate and discussion.

P: This was an unprecedented act of faith, for in other democracies the vote had been granted slowly, and in stages.

Q: However, on one central feature of the Constitution there was substantial agreement.

R: Many of the provisions were arrived at through a process of give-and-take, by forging a middle ground between two opposed positions.

S: This was on the granting of the vote to every adult Indian.

S6: In countries such as the United States and the United Kingdom, only men with education were allowed into the charmed circle.
